Art Unit: 3744

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-4, drawn to a method of cooling materials using an air bath, classified in class 62, subclass 89.
 - II. Claim 5, drawn to a method of cooling materials using a primary refrigeration system and a secondary refrigeration system, classified in class 62, subclass 99.
 - III. Claims 6-7 and 10-21, drawn to an apparatus for cooling portable devices comprising a docking platform, classified in class 62, subclass 237.
 - IV. Claims 8-9, drawn to an apparatus for cooling materials comprising a portable container, classified in class 62, subclass 457.9.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and III are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case the process as claimed can be practiced by another and materially different apparatus such as one that does not require a refrigeration tower.
3. Inventions I and II are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention I has separate utility such as by itself, without the secondary refrigeration system. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Art Unit: 3744

4. Inventions III and IV are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention IV has separate utility such as by itself, without the secondary refrigeration system or the docking platform.

See MPEP § 806.05(d).

5. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

6. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention: 1) different species of the refrigeration system: Figs. 4&8, Fig. 5, Fig. 6, and Fig. 7; and 2) different species of how the refrigeration system is used: Figs. 1-2, Figs. 9-12, Figs. 13-16, Fig. 17, Fig. 18, Figs. 21-22, and Figs. 23-24.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no claims are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. Applicant is also advised that to be complete an election must be made from the listing of inventions I-IV, as well as an election from the listing of different species of the refrigeration systems, as well as an election from the listing of different species of how the refrigeration system is used. In other words, three elections must be made in order for the response to be complete. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

7. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
